"SOTTODICIOOTTO" FILM FESTIVAL & CAMPUS

04 - 08/12

An online edition of the festival - created to give visibility to audiovisual products made by the under 18s - on MYmovies streaming platform: 54 films (including 24 short films in competition), meetings and masterclasses with free access. The 2020 theme, "My families", explores a changing and constantly evolving concept through cinema, narrating different, possible families: emerging and traditional, natural or by choice, happy or unhappy, functional or dysfunctional. The festival, then, does not forget the hundred years since the birth of Gianni Rodari, re-proposing two characters from his stories, Cipollino and Giovanni the distracted, in an unusual Russian animated version.

GRAN PARADISO E ALPI REALI ANFITEATRO MORENICO DI IVREA COLLINE DEL PO E ALTO CANAVESE 12/20

IVREA AND THE MORAINIC AMPHITHEATRE

Ivrea is an history book, from Roman times until the Twentieth century, the time of Olivetti: in 2018 summer it entered the UNESCO World Heritage List as “Ivrea, Industrial City of the 20th Century”. This is the area that comes alive during the Winter with the Historic Carnival of Ivrea, which is among the most famous in Italia, the land where famous castles alternate (as Agliè - UNESCO Royal Residence - and Masino) with vineyards that produce fine DOCG and DOC wines; here passes the Via Francigena Morenico-Canavesana, traveled in 990 by the archbishop of Canterbury Sigeric... all immersed in the majestic natural spectacle of the Morainic Amphitheatre of Ivrea, the complex of hills, lakes, rivers, peat bogs and rocks formed by the ice of the Quaternary Era.

THE GRAN PARADISO NATIONAL PARK

The paths in Orco and Soana Valleys cross the wonderful Gran Paradiso National Park (the oldest in Italia by constitution) which bears the name from the only “4000” totally in the Italian territory (4061m). “The sublime chain of the Alps is at your fingertips” Nietzsche said in describing this area, with Ceresole Reale at the centre, which today provides the emotion of meeting among others Alpine ibex, chamois and ermines and enjoy a unique and unspoiled flora. And here, too, cuisine plays a fundamental part with its Alpine pasture cheeses, its salted meats and the flavors that evoke the mountains. In winter, the snow becomes the protagonist with many things on offer, from ski-mountaineering to cross-country skiing, from ice falls to snowshoe walks; in summer this is the kingdom of trekking and cyclists who want to conquer the Colle del Nivolet (2612m), without forgetting that windsurfing, sailing and canoeing are practiced on Lake Ceresole.

LANZO TORINESE AND ITS VALLEYS

The Grande Valley, the Ala Valley and the Viù Valley, once the holiday resorts of Torino aristocracy and bourgeoisie, head to Lanzo - do not miss the daring Devil’s Bridge - and include some of the major peaks of the Piemonte region, such as the Bessanese and the Ciamarella. They are among the places in the western Alpine arc that have best kept unaltered the charm of a rugged and wild mountain: here you can practice fishing, quiet walks, summer and winter hiking on snowshoes, ski-mountaineering, trekking along great itineraries, perched along the routes that made the history of Torino mountaineering. The scenic Pian della Mussa, above Balme, is worth a trip, rich in spring waters that feed the Torino aqueduct.

PINEROLO E VALLI VALDESI, ALTA VAL SUSA E CHISONE, VALLI E TERRE DI SUSA

PINEROLO AND WALDENSIAN VALLEYS

Surrounded by the peaks, Pinerolo is an age-old epicentre of the history of cavalry: armies from all over the world met here to attend the Military Riding School, whose history is traced in the Historical Museum of the Cavalry. And it's military, a few kilometres away, the incredible Fenestrelle Fort (XVIII-XIX centuries): unique in Europe and symbol of the Province of Torino, it is made up of three fortified groups (St Carlo, Tre Denti and Delle Valli) joined by a tunnel, inside of which runs the longest covered staircase in Europe, with 4000 steps. The surrounding valleys (with Torre Pellice in the centre) have a Waldensian heart that expresses itself both in faith and in its great gastronomic tradition, a cuisine made of herbs and mountain flavors.

UPPER SUSA VALLEY AND CHISONE

Alps of Upper Susa Valley and Chisone, the seat of the 20th Torino Winter Olympic Games in 2006: perfect locations for lovers of skiing and for Summer destinations dedicated to outdoor sports. The Vialattea (Cesana-Sansicario, Clavière, Pragelato, Sauze d'Oulx, Sestriere) offers 400km of downhill tracks, divided into 249 slopes served by 70 lifts; the Bardonecchia area has 100km of slopes and lifts up to 2800m of altitude; for lovers of cross-country skiing, the Chisone Valley is the ideal scenario with over 100km of cross-country trails (in Pragelato there is a tourist trail crossing the Tronca Valley Park...). And then, itineraries for ski-mountaineering and snowshoe trekking, hillsides for freeriding and sled dog circuits.

www.turismotorino.org

SUSA'S VALLEYS AND LANDS

Since the Middle Ages the religious worshippers crossed these paths to reach Roma along a variant of the Via Francigena that still today offers evocative sacred places to those in search of concentration and beauty. The most amazing is the Sacra di San Michele (X century), fortified monastery on Mount Pirchiriano and symbol of the Piemonte Region: dedicated to the cult of the Archangel Michael, it is part of a route of pilgrimage over 2000km long that goes from Mont-Saint-Michel in France to Monte Sant'Angelo in Puglia; but the Novalesa Abbey of and the St Antonio di Ranverso Preceptory are no less spectacular. To write a different but similar story for their charm are the ancient fortresses, such as the Exilles Fort. All starting from Susa, "Gateway to Italia", whose Roman origins and glories are still witnessed throughout the city.
